STANDING CASE.—William Parr, who resides at No. 25 Columbia avenue, went into a saloon kept by Robert Maters at the southwest corner of Front and Putnam streets, to get drinks for himself and a friend who was with him at the time. Parr offered ten dollars to the proprietor and while receiving his change a man named Michael Kenney, who was unknown to him, stepped up and accused him of dividing his money with the landlord. Parr immediately drew a knife and stabbed him in the rear below the elbow, inflicting a rather painful, but not at all dangerous, flesh wound. Mr. John Hammett, a citizen, being attracted to the place by the noise, arrested Kenney and handed him over to the authorities. He was taken before Alderman Shoemaker, and after a hearing, was held in $500 bail to answer the charge of assault and battery with intent to kill.

FRAUDULENT DISTILLATION.—At a very early hour yesterday morning an officer noticed a suspicious looking wagon driving through the streets in Manayunk. He followed it, and as he overhauled it the person who had charge of it jumped out and escaped. The officer, however, had recognized him as a man named James Johnson. The officer then inspected the wagon, and found it to be a still, and that it was used for the purpose of distilling. Johnson was taken into custody last evening at Twentieth and Brown streets. He had a hearing before Alderman Hancock, upon the charge of distilling, and was committed to answer before a United States Commissioner, on the present offense, and also for being a fugitive from justice.

LECTURE ON "THE PLAINS."—Elsewhere in our paper to-day will be found a card addressed to J. L. Ringwalt, Esq., by many of our best known citizens, asking him to deliver a lecture on his lecture on "The Plains and Rocky Mountains." We are glad to be able to announce that Mr. Ringwalt has consented to the request, and will, for a few nights, repeat his interesting address at the Assembly Buildings. Having recently returned from a trip to the great West, he is well qualified to treat of the subject, and combined with his capacities is a perceptive power of high order and a culture rarely met with. His lecture is illustrated with pictures taken on the spot, and by the use of a lantern light a vivid idea of the great prairies and mountains is conveyed to the audience. We promise to be a large and intelligent throng in the entertainment to be given.

POLITICAL MEETINGS THIS EVENING.—The following meetings are announced for this evening:—A Republican meeting, under the call of George G. Schock, will be held in front of Sackett's hotel, at Frankford, at which General Joshua T. Owen, ex-Governor, and others are expected to speak. In case the weather is unpropitious, the meeting will be held in Odd Fellows Hall.

The Republicans of the Third Division of the Twenty-fourth Ward meet for organization this evening, at the Pennsylvania Hotel, Market street, below Thirty-third.

The Democracy of the Twelfth Ward hold a meeting at the house of General Hallier, this evening, to organize for the campaign. Several prominent speakers are expected to address the meeting.

SUSPICIOUS FELLOWS.—Between the hours of 2 and 3 this morning, Officer Rice observed three men, John Williams, John Wallace, and John Moran, going along Shippen street, near Penn, in a very suspicious manner. They were carrying bags of burrhead designs, he followed after them. After going a short distance, Williams dropped a short iron bar, which it is supposed they intended to use in prying open a door or window. Officer Rice procured the assistance of another officer, and arrested all three of the suspicious characters. They had a hearing before Alderman Morrow, and Williams was held in $500 bail to answer, and Wallace and Moran in $400 bail each to answer.

THE SECOND UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—Rev. John B. Dules, D. D., pastor, has lately undergone extensive improvements and repairs, and will to-morrow be opened for the first time in some weeks. The galleries and pulpit have been remodelled, and the entire building repaired. The congregation and pastor may well congratulate themselves on having one of the very handsomest churches in the city. The ladies have been very instrumental in this work, having raised several thousand dollars for the purpose. Services at the usual hours to-morrow, 10½ A. M. and 4 P. M.

BOY RUN OVER AND KILLED.—Persons cannot exercise too much care in crossing the tracks of the passenger railroads in the city. In spite of the many accidents that happen, and the cautions that are constantly given, we hear of a fatal accident, which occurred yesterday morning. A boy, about ten years old, named William, whilst crossing the track of the Ridge Avenue Passenger Railroad, at Seventeenth and Ridge avenues, fell and was run over by car No. 17, and was killed almost instantly. His body was taken charge of by the Coroner, and an inquest will be held.

FALSE WHORL.—Pat Garvin, who retails small articles in the provision line at Twenty-second and Market streets, was arrested upon a charge of giving false weight, this morning. It is alleged that Pat, in his greed for large profits, undertook to sell his customers false weights, by deducting a small margin from each sale. The keen eyes of the economical housekeepers in that vicinity, however, were too sharp for Pat, and he was taken into custody and before Alderman Gooden. After a hearing he was fined $5 for breach of ordinance and departed a sadder and a wiser man.

ATTEMPTED HOUSE ROBBERY.—At a very early hour this morning, Mrs. Miles, residing at Tenth and Fitzwater streets, called in a police officer and told him there was a thief in the house. The officer went in through the back way, but the thief must have run up stairs and down through the front entry, as the officer could not find him. It is supposed he had secreted himself in the house before the family had retired, as the sound of a door being unlocked was heard, and the thief was seen running taken, as the thief was scared away to soon.

SNEAK THIEF.—A man giving the name of Charles Anderson was arrested yesterday at noon, upon the charge of walking into a saloon kept by Mr. Connelly, and helping himself to free hats that were hanging on the last neck. He was charged with more than he could carry, and was questioned as to the manner in which he came into possession of them. Not being able to give a satisfactory solution to the mystery, he was taken before Alderman Morrow, who held him in $500 bail to answer.

LARCENY OF A WATCH.—William Walton, colored individual, was arrested near Thirty-third and Market streets, yesterday afternoon, upon a charge of larceny. William, it is alleged, stole a watch, somewhere in the neighborhood of Twentieth and Market streets, of his web. The police were put on the watch for William, and soon afterwards arrested him. He had a hearing before Alderman Manlio, and was held in $400 bail to answer.

IR AND RAN CLINIC. at the Philadelphia University of Medicine and Surgery, Ninth street, south of Walnut. The clinic is conducted by Dr. Von Moenchinger, who holds the degree of Professor of Ophthalmic and Aural Surgery. His clinic during the last session was numerously attended, both by patients who came to avail themselves of his services, and by medical men who wished to witness the operations on the eye and ear.

BOY DROWNED.—An unknown man, supposed to be a carpenter, died about forty years ago in the Delaware at Chesnut street wharf to-day. He is 5 feet 10 inches in height, has dark hair and mustache, and had on a dark coat, black pants, dark woolen shirt, and blue boots. The Coroner held an inquest. A verdict of accidental drowning was rendered.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—A temperance meeting, under the auspices of Division No. 1, of the Society of Temperance, will be held to-morrow evening at 7½ o'clock, at the corner of Third and Chestnut streets, between Market and Chesnut. The exercises commence at 7½ o'clock. Prominent speakers will address the meeting.

HEARING BEFORE UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER.—This morning Peter Vincent had a hearing before United States Commissioner Fletcher, on the charge of carrying distilled spirits other than to a bonded warehouse. Thomas Short testified that he is a policeman, and on the 19th of September, between 8 and 9 o'clock in the evening, on Ridge avenue, he overhauled Vincent and found two barrels of whiskey in his wagon, one marked "vinegar," and the other was not marked; examined them, and found them to contain whiskey; took horse and wagon and contents to the Station House, and while turning the corner defendant escaped. He held him last night and took him to Station House.

Officer James McCreedy corroborated the above statement. Held in $1000 bail to answer.

MINOR IN OFFICE.—This afternoon the case of James Fletcher, upon the charge of misdemeanor as a Government officer, was taken before United States Commissioner Fletcher, not being present, bail was forfeited, and a warrant was issued for his arrest. Fletcher held the office of Assistant Special Inspector, and while in that office, it is alleged that he extorted money from different parties, under the pretense of making a settlement of difficulties with the revenue officers.

Intelligence from Bogota—Horrible Murder at Carthagena.
Intelligence received on the 18th inst. from the United States Minister to Bogota, arrived at that capital on July 22, and was received in public audience by President Santos Acosta on the 25th. The usual congratulatory speeches were made on the occasion.

A horrible affair occurred at Carthagena on the night of the 1st inst. Four Americans, ex-officers of the steamer Rango (R. R. Currier), about which there has been so much trouble, came from Santa Martha to Carthagena in the English steamer Tyne, as bearers of despatches to the United States Consul. The latter place, when on going ashore, they were attacked by an armed mob, and two of the number brutally murdered. One other was seriously wounded, and the fourth escaped, only by remaining very quietly in his room, through the door of which the mob thrust their bayonets.

The names of the murdered men are George A. Borchert, of Savannah, Ga., and John W. Murchison, of Portsmouth, Va. Wounded, Thomas L. Dorn, of New York. The one who escaped was Philip Smith, of Fairfax county, Va. Dorn and Smith were rescued by A. S. Hanneberg, Esq., United States Consul, at midnight, and placed on board the Tyne, which steamer they came on to Aspinwall. Up to the 5th inst. nothing had been done; no arrests made, and no one dared to speak of the affair.

After the murder the Consul proceeded to bury the dead bodies, which he found stripped of everything valuable. The despatches and letters of protest they bore were taken to the United States Consul. The Consul, in a letter to the President of the State, alluded to the murder, and expressed his regret that these gentlemen in accepting service as officers of the United States Navy, had deprived themselves of the protection of the United States flag; still, as they were Americans, all will sympathize with them and their friends.

American residents of Carthagena, Santa Martha, and Barranguilla call loudly for an American man-of-war to remain near the place, a protection against existing lawlessness in that region, consequent on the late unsettled and revolutionary state of the country. It is greatly to be hoped our Government will see the necessity of sending one.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.
COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Polce.—The usual Saturday business was before the Court. The Commonwealth ex rel. Robert Reed vs. the City of Philadelphia, was argued and decided. Charles Burchell and Henry Burchell kept their glass and china house at No. 207 South Second street, and were charged with the murder of a man named Charles Burchell, who was found dead on the street. The Burchells claimed that the man was found dead on the street, and that they were not responsible for his death.

But the Court held that a representation by the Burchells that the man was found dead on the street, and that they were not responsible for his death, was not sufficient to exonerate them from the charge of murder. The Court held that the Burchells were guilty of murder, and sentenced them to the State Prison for life.

On the same day, the next, the relator presented at the Bank of Northern Liberties a check for $20 to be cashed by the bank. The bank refused to cash the check, and the relator brought an action against the bank. The Court held that the bank was liable to cash the check, and awarded the relator the amount of the check, with costs.

Jenny Lind.
Among the singers at the Herford musical festival, a German of a few weeks ago, named "Jenny Lind." The Fall Mail Gazette criticizes her performance as follows:—
"Miss Gossard, in singing it is needless to speak of course she did all that lay in her power for her husband's music; but it was to little or no purpose. She happily took part in other entertainments—in 'The Fish,' for example, and in the second and third parts of 'The Messiah.' Her singing in these works was more than over-embellished by her own efforts; but—
